

To: Gee, Jo[Gee.Jo@epa.gov]
From: Rinehart, Jon
Sent: Thur 8/13/2015 3:50:31 PM
Subject: Gold King Mine

EPA has been responding to the release of approximately 3 million gallons of mine waste water to the Animas River. This has impacted the river which is a drinking water source for the people of Farmington.,New Mexico. We have been providing water to livestock and commercial vegetable plots. We are going to supply hay to the cattle. The plume contains heavy metals such arsenic and lead.

Jon

Sent from my Windows Phone